

Monday, June 19th

Evolving Dog Population Management

Time (UTC)	Presenter(s)	Topic
11:00	Elly Hiby	Welcome
11:10	John D. Boone & Tyler Flockhart	Species distribution models for dog and cat management
11:30	Helen Fielding	The Goa DogPop project: a multisite randomised controlled trial measuring the impacts of sterilisation on free-roaming dog populations
11:45	Tuntikorn Rungpatana - Dr Oob	Bangkok CNVR planing monitoring and evaluation
12:05	Andrew Yoak	StreetDogSim: using computer modeling to help plan free roaming dog interventions
12:25	Conrad Freuling	High-Resolution Settlement Layer (HRSL) to estimate dog populations and derive vaccination coverage after parenteral and oral rabies vaccination – an example from Namibia
12:45	Terence Scott	Holistic and scientific: Making data-driven approaches accessible to anyone

Tuesday, June 20th

Population Management in One Health

Time (UTC)	Presenter(s)	Topic
11:00	Paul Marvell	Welcome
11:05	Audrey Delsink	A one health approach through “Healthy Pets, Healthier Community” program in low-income communities of South Africa
11:25	Zain Shaheen	Barriers to humane dog population management and impact on human health in Jordan
11:40	Abdul-Jalil Mohammadzai - Dr Mo	Title TBC
12:00	Tessa Baker	Long-term subsidized veterinary service provision in Indigenous communities in Northern Canada: A One Health approach to service delivery and program evaluation
12:20	Jessica Hoopes	Beyond Dog Management: One Health Considerations in the Changing Landscape of Parasite Treatment and Prophylaxis in Australian Indigenous Community Dog Health and Management Programs
12:40	Kavosa Mudoga	Dog population findings from the AU-IBAR 2021-2022 survey to determine the ‘institutional preparedness of African countries to eliminate rabies by 2030’

Wednesday, June 21st

Government Leadership in Population Management

Time (UTC)	Presenter(s)	Topic
11:00	Pankaj KC	Welcome
11:05	Pankaj KC	Paws for progress: The importance of dog population management in sustainable development
11:25	Anita Socol & Manuela Rowlings	Collaboration between different dog population management actors as key to a successful program
11:40	Silja Schiller-Moumtzidis	Government leadership in population management – Case study Zero Stray Pawject
12:00	Liat Morgan	The Israeli governmental Dog Population Management (DPM) program as a solution for a western country
12:20	Liran Plitman	The regulator's predicament: Using public consultation as a tool towards developing a national policy for managing free-roaming cats in Israel
12:40	Agnès Dufau	TNR Programs in Spain - national and local outlook: Overview of the newly adopted Law on the Protection of the Rights and Welfare of Animals and the specific example of the city of Cordoba

Thursday, June 22nd

Human Behaviour & Access to Care

Time (UTC)	Presenter(s)	Topic
11:00	Tamara Kartal	Welcome
11:05	Alex Rothlisberger	The importance of access to care in dog and cat management programs
11:20	Ruth De Vere	Educating communities is only half the battle
11:40	Michelle Tuma	Increasing access to veterinary care in Canada's North through telehealth and community Animal Health worker programs
12:00	Alanna Collicutt	Introduction to managing dogs in First Nations workshop
12:20	Dr. Vrushti Mawani & Dr. Piyush Patel	Integrated Animal Birth Control programs: Engaging communities to reduce human-dog conflict in urban India
12:40	Annelieke Laninga (Anna)	Community adoption – Striking a balance between human and animal welfare

Friday, June 23rd

Rehoming & Other Issues

Time (UTC)	Presenter(s)	Topic
11:00	Elly Hiby	Welcome
11:05	Battersea, Dogs Trust Worldwide, FOUR PAWS, ICatCare	Resources for shelters in a “one-stop” presentation
11:45	Ana-Maria Constantinescu	Changing attitudes and behaviours towards shelter dogs through our soccer adoption campaign in Romania
11:55	Valerie Benka	A “spay shot” is on the path to transform access to sterilization
12:15	Abi Collinson	“It’s just one piece of the puzzle...”: Practitioner perspectives regarding the role of sterilisation in dog population management
12:30	Matt Backhouse	The dog and cat meat trade: Implications for rabies control and population management
12:50	Elly Hiby	Closing: Creating impact, efficiency and sustainability in dog and cat population management